

The Nevada Interpreters and Translators Association (NITA) Presents: December Quarterly Meeting – Free and Open to the Public

Win a one-year NITA membership!

When: Saturday, December 5, 2009,
2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., followed by a
no-host informal networking happy hour at Chocolate Bar (475 S
Arlington Ave # 1, Phone: (775)
337-1122)

Where: University of Nevada, Reno, IGT
Mathewson Knowledge Center
Auditorium 124

Who: NITA board members, NITA
members, and general public

Why: Meet fellow NITA members, network, attend three free presentations

The Court Certification Process in Nevada by Andrea Krlickova

Ms. Krlickova, who manages the court certification program for the Nevada Supreme Court, will provide an overview and details about procedures, requirements, and testing for interpreters in Nevada who want to pursue the Nevada court certification. Includes a Q& A period.

Modern History of Court Interpretation: The Nuremberg Trial of Nazi War Criminals by Andrea Krlickova

An introduction to the modern history of court interpretation through the Nuremberg Trial of Nazi War Criminals, which was the first official international gathering in which simultaneous interpretation was used.

Andrea Krlickova, originally from Slovakia, has a background in law. She's the Court Services Analyst at the Nevada Supreme Court in Las Vegas.

Discussion panel on the American Translators Association's 50th Annual Conference in NYC

Join ATA conference attendees as they share and discuss some of the most important sessions and events from this annual conference.

